

WHEN LIFE CHANGES

You don't have to figure it out alone.

A change in health. A parent who needs more help. Questions about where to live or what comes next. Elder Caring helps you make sense of the options and move forward.

I'm helping someone I care about.

I'm planning for my own future.

I'm supporting a client.

I need help finding a residence.

Start with the question on your mind. We'll help identify the right next step.

LET'S TALK

A conversation is a good place to begin.

Tell us what's happening, where support is needed and your preferred language.

TOLL-FREE

1-866-473-8887

TORONTO

416-658-8887

info@eldercaring.ca
eldercaring.ca

Founded in Toronto. Supporting clients and their families coast to coast.

Guidance is available by phone or online. In-person services are confirmed according to location and needs.

Part of the Integracare family of companies

YOUR PARTNER IN HEALTHY AGING

Clear guidance. Thoughtful care planning.

Helping older adults and families make informed decisions about care.

Across Canada.
In English and French.

The person. The family. The whole picture.

Founded by Audrey Miller in 2004, Elder Caring brings together expertise in social work, occupational therapy and allied health. We help older adults, families and professional advisors navigate care decisions.

Guidance centred on the person and their family.

We listen to what matters, consider the support already in place and help turn questions into practical next steps.

Support for today. Planning for tomorrow.

Care management

Assess needs, explore options and coordinate care as circumstances change.

Assessments & monitoring

Understand daily functioning, support at home and changing needs. Functional Living Assessment™ and wellness monitoring are available through an agreed engagement.

Residence search & selection

Get help comparing senior residences against personal needs, preferences and budget.

Planning ahead

Explore Advanced Wellness Planning and Advance Care Registration, or organise key information with the Wellness Binder™.

For professional advisors

Care expertise for financial advisors, trust professionals, estate lawyers and mediators. Speaking and education are also available.

A clear next step. At your pace.

01 Tell us your situation

Share your concerns or plans. You don't need to know which service you need.

02 Agree on the support

We discuss the appropriate service, its scope, availability and fees before you proceed.

03 Move forward with guidance

Get help understanding options, organising support and preparing for change.

A focused first conversation

Our 75-minute introductory wellness consultation is available by phone or video. Contact us or explore online booking at eldercaring.ca. ECI confirms your appointment after purchase.